MACHINERY & TECHNOLOGY

Erica Ceramic has installed the latest modern day technology and machinery at the manufacturing plant to produce the finest ceramic tiles to merge our vision with reality. We're one of the former organizations to incorporate digital technology creating new possibilities for ceramic tiles. The new age technology allows us to design tiles with unusual three-dimensional qualities as well.

These gigantic vertical dryers are installed to remove moisture content from the tiles.

Tile pressing is done by these machines to make sure the stiffness of the tiles is adequate.

This digital machine is used for printing purpose on tiles.

These machines are used to craft tiles in desired shapes & sizes.

STAYING ADVANCED &
DEVELOPING WITH TRENDS
